Old Business: The members present walked the property to view the areas where the Flying Eagles group have been granted permission by the Town Council to remove trees and to view other areas and brainstorm ideas for future improvements and developments. Other areas of discussion centered on clearing up the overgrowth surrounding the Naticook Brook culverts and placement of stones to minimize unwanted traffic beyond the Boat Ramp parking lot. Anita Creager provided a brief synopsis of the historical account of the skirmish that occurred on the bridge over Naticook Brook during the 1790's. Mike Drouin led a walk on an undeveloped trail to explore possibilities of adding this to the network of named trails.
