Manchester, NH

and

John Ives
age 21
New Boston, NH

The arrest is the result of the four suspects having been discovered inside Majestic Motors at 734 D.W. Hwy. shortly before 4:00AM on Tuesday December 16, 2014. Officers had been on heightened alert after a series of thefts which included a 1955 Dodge Power Wagon pickup truck which was taken from the business on December 01, 2014.

Officers found a Chevrolet Pickup registered to Ives outside the fenced in yard of Majestic Motors and observed tools and motor vehicle parts within the bed of the truck.

Police began patrolling the area and discovered four men with flashlights inside the main office of Majestic Motors. The suspects were observed gathering tools from within the office. The suspects observed the officers approaching them and began to flee the area. A foot pursuit ensued and two of the suspects were taken into custody a short distance away. A third escaped on foot but was later arrested at the Merrimack Police Department. Police have issued an arrest warrant for felony theft and burglary for 19 year old Richard Nocella of Goffstown, NH., who was also part of the group who were found inside the building, but managed to elude apprehension at the time.

Merrimack Police conducted extensive interviews which led to the discovery of the 1955 Dodge truck in a garage in Dunbarton, NH and with the assistance of the Dunbarton Police, were able to recover the pickup along with many other stolen auto parts from Majestic Motors.

The three men have been arraigned in the Merrimack Circuit Court and are being held on bail, and a probable cause hearing has been set for December 24th at 9:00 AM.
