Good Morning,

It is with sadness that I have to write this letter.

Unfortunately I am unable to renew my seat on the Heritage Commission. I would like to make it clear that my job has become very demanding since November and I don't see that changing anytime soon. I think it best that I bow out since I am unable to provide the Commission the attention it needs.

The Commission provides a great service to the community and I will miss being a part of it.

Sincerely,
Debbie

Becky,

I wanted to let you know that I have decided not to be considered for reappointment to the Park and Rec Committee.

I learned a lot about the committee and what it does for the town, but unfortunately I will not be able to continue to serve.

Thank you

It has been my privilege to serve with the Heritage Commission.
Thank you! We have completed some worthwhile historical projects over the past few years and many more can be done with cooperation and vision. (over, please)

Unfortunately, I cannot consider re-appointment to the Commission due to many other commitments at this time.
