

Seasonal Engineering Interns Town of Merrimack

The Merrimack, N.H. Public Works Department is seeking Engineering Interns for a period up to 90 days to assist the Town with a wide variety of field surveying and engineering projects this summer. Assignments may include: updating the Town's GIS mapping, GPS locating of structures for incorporation into GIS, assisting in plan reviews, pavement condition surveys, field surveying, storm drain outfall identification and monitoring, construction inspection, and assisting in data entry into the asset management software. Applicants must have a valid driver's license. Experience with survey equipment, Microsoft Word, Excel and CAD or GIS software is desirable but not required. Applicants must be a college student (2nd/3rd year Civil Engineering students preferred, but other engineering/computer science majors may be considered). Starting rate: $12.00 per hour with a 40 hour work week, M-F. To apply, print and complete a Town Application available at www.merrimacknh.gov/positionopenings and send along with your resume and cover letter to Town of Merrimack, HR – Engineering Intern, 6 Baboosic Lake Road, Merrimack, NH 03054 by Wednesday, February 24, 2016.