FROM: DEPUTY CHIEF BRIAN LEVESQUE
RE: AGENDA REQUEST

The agenda request before the Town Council is to accept a donation of $5,000 from Merrimack Crimeline towards the purchase of a new canine for patrol functions. As you are aware, "Dallas" had to be retired due to regression as he matured. He began to show deficiencies in certain areas that were discovered during scenario based training and a deployment in town that were a safety concern to the police department.

The canine will be an eleven month old Belgian Malinois from First Class K-9 of Worcester, MA. Master Patrolman Stephen Wallin has been working with the canine at the Boston K-9 Academy. The canine has successfully moved through each phase of training so far and the seller guarantees that the canine will pass the certification. The seller also provides a one year warranty after the date of sale against any debilitating congenital defects and a one year guarantee on breed standard hips and elbows.
